- Any member of the Company is entitled to appoint a proxy to exercise all or any of its rights to attend, speak and vote at the AGM. A proxy need not be a member of the Company. Completion and return of the Form of Proxy will not preclude a member from attending and voting at the AGM, or any adjournment thereof, in person.

- You may appoint more than one proxy but only one proxy may attend the meeting and vote instead of you.
- In the case of joint holders, such persons shall not have the right of voting individually but shall elect one of their number to represent them and to vote whether in person or by proxy in their name. In default of such election, the person whose name stands first in the Register of Members in respect of the joint holding shall alone be entitled to vote.
- The 'Vote Withheld' option is provided to enable you to abstain on a particular resolution. However it should be noted that a 'Vote Withheld' is not a vote in law and will not be counted in the calculation of the proportion of votes 'For' or 'Against' a resolution.
